

Where is the Soul of Li Hung Chang?

Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

The discussion going on in the daily press as to what has become of the soul of Li Hung Chang the great Chinese statesman, seems to me flat, stale and unprofitable. Whoever starts the discussion must have been impelled to do so by the desire to arrange a sensation. Anything bizarre, strange or unusual is sure to attract attention. Many of the words and sentences that has been uttered on this subject sound like echoes from a past time. I had hoped that the day had passed long since in which people really believed that a fellow creature who chanced to hold a religious belief different from theirs was doomed and damned eternally. All that I have to say in the matter is to quote the expression of a Jewish sage who lived in the second Christian century: "The good and the pious of all peoples have a share in the bliss of the future life." This sentiment my faith (Judaism) has ever endorsed. To it I have nothing to add. It covers the case of Li Hung Chang and all other children of the living God, the Maker of all, and hence we must believe also, the Father of all.

"The miserable exhibition of 'prize-fighting' between JIM JEFFRIES and GUS RUTLIN has dealt a severe blow to the sport in San Francisco," says a telegram from that city. It would have been a blessing had a death blow been dealt to the "sports" themselves.

INQUITOUS ENOUGH NOW.

Louisville Courier-Journal.

Senator Uley is about right in saying that as far as the restricting of the state is concerned his party has everything in its own hands now, and had better let well enough alone. The Constitution of the state says "not more than two counties shall be joined together to form a Representative District," and yet the three counties of Clay, Jackson and Boone have been joined to form the Seventy-first District; the three counties of Breathitt, Lee and Mazonia to form the Ninety-second District; the four counties of Bell, Harlan, Leslie and Perry to form the Ninety-third District, and the three counties of Knott, Floyd and Letcher to form the Ninety-seventh District.

The Constitution also provides that the Legislative Districts shall be "as nearly equal in population as may be," whereas the four counties constituting the Ninety-third District have a population of 80,000, while the Thirtieth District, consisting of the single county of Meade, has only 10,000, and the county of Boone, embracing the Thirtieth, Fifteenth and Sixteenth, has only 38,000. This sort of extravagant inequality runs all through the Representative Districts.

The Senatorial Districts illustrate the same sort of disregard of fairness and constitutionality. For instance, and only one instance of many—the Thirtieth District, a Representative District, embraces two counties, a larger area than the Second, Seventh or Eighth Congressional Districts, and a population of 100,000, not much below what is allowed a Congressman in the United States House of Representatives. The Twenty-third District, with 38,000 population, and Nelson, Shelby and Spencer, with 42,333 inhabitants, constituting the Fourteenth District, having from less than a third to less than a half of the population of the Thirtieth District, have each a Senator.

Mr. Uley may well counsel his party to let well enough alone. The Woodsonizing of the state is the present extent and to any greater extent will be put to the Constitutional test, and the people will be saved annoyance by shortening as far as possible the time occupied in applying the test.

BRAIN-FOOD NONSENSE.

Another ridiculous food fad has been branded by the most competent authorities. They have declared the silly notion that so-called brain food, needed for brain, muscle and still another for bones. A correct diet will not only nourish a particular part of the body, but it will sustain every other part. Yet, however good your food may be, its nutriment is destroyed by indigestion or dyspepsia. You must prepare for their appearance or prevent their coming by taking regular doses of Green's August Flower, the favorite medicine of the healthy millions. A few doses aids indigestion, stimulates the liver to its action, purifies the blood, and makes you live, eat, drink and be merry. You can get Dr. J. C. Green's reliable remedy at J. Jas.
